OUR HOME ...

The Affinity House is a sober living home for women, run by women, seeking to lift you up and empower you to be the best version of your self.

Our sober house in Hull, MA offers a beautiful area for peaceful recovery with valuable resources, such as a variety of local AA meetings, seven days a week. We're also located directly across the street from a counseling center that offers an Intensive Outpatient Program (IOP). The Affinity House can accept up to 13 residents with a couple different living arrangements.

Only a few blocks away from the Nantasket Beach oceanfront and also within walking distance from many amenities including convenience stores, the village market, gas stations, restaurants, public transportation, and local shops!

ENTRANCE FEES ...

All rooms for rent are the same rate of $200/week.

A security deposit of $100 is due upon entrance as well as first and last week's rent.

We accept payment in the form of checks, cash, PayPal, Venmo and Zelle.

HOUSE INFORMATION ...

The Affinity House accepts applicants who have achieved at least two weeks of sobriety. We are willing to consider those who have not achieved the required sobriety on a case basis as we understand the many challenges women in recovery face. We proudly accept Medically Assisted Treatment (MAT) residents. We are willing to put in the work and help you define your recovery plan and access the resources you need to be successful.

The Affinity House is a clean and sober facility - drug and alcohol use are strictly prohibited. Any violation of this rule is cause for immediate discharge. All potential residents must fill out an application to be considered. The application and other applicable documents can be found on our website at www.theaffinityhouse.com.

WHO WE ARE ...
